A discipline committee will review this report. It is important that it be clear, legible and accurate. Please confine your factual comments to the actual dismissal incident only.

The incident occurred 59 minutes into the game and was as follows:

The Bananas FC player had chipped the ball over the defender of Apples team, and the keeper, Jane Smith, stepped up and out of the penalty area to meet him. The Bananas FC attacker played the ball past the keeper Smith, who at this point deliberately moved his hand to contact the ball. This offence occurred outside the penalty area, the keeper was the last defender, the attacker was moving towards the net and had possession of the ball. The referee stopped play and sent the keeper off for denying an obvious goal scoring opportunity by handling the ball. Play was restarted with a direct free kick 2 yards outside the penalty area.
